

Offender Employment Services

Offender Employment Services helps offenders find jobs, stay employed, and re-enter society without returning to crime. Offenders include people who have been in jail or prison, or are otherwise involved with the criminal justice system.

We work through a network of local contractors to provide:

- Job Hunter workshops and career fairs at several state prisons
- Job counseling for ex-offenders
- Incentives to businesses that hire offenders – including tax credits and fidelity bonds
- A Re-Entry Guide that addresses the unique barriers offenders face when looking for work
- Training to professionals who counsel offenders
